An ineligible company is any entity whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients. For specific examples of ineligible companies, visit accme.org/standards.	Examples of financial relationships include employee, researcher, consultant, advisor, speaker, independent contractor (including contracted research), royalties or patent beneficiary, executive role, and ownership interest. Individual stocks and stock options should be disclosed; diversified mutual funds do not need to be disclosed. Research funding from ineligible companies should be disclosed by the principal or named investigator even if that individual's institution receives the research grant and manages the funds.		If the financial relationship existed during the last 24 months, but has now ended, please check the box in this column. This will help the education staff determine if any mitigation steps need to be taken.

The TTUHSC EI Paso Office of CME maintains disclosures on a fiscal year basis. Planners/presenters should disclose any current or future relationships that may be applicable from September 1 through August 31. In the event of a change in relationship status, the planner/presenter must notify the CME coordinator for his/her activity and complete an updated disclosure statement.
